

K2b learned a lot about polar bears! In reading centers, K2b created our own cotton ball polar bears and wrote about the text Polar Bear, Polar Bear. In phonics, we discussed our last consonant V, as well as the sight word "me." We began a new chapter book, Junie B. Jones and the Sneaky Peaky Spying. In math, we talked more about surveys and dividing objects into equal parts. In art, K2b made finger puppets. In Peace First, K2b talked about peacemakers at Mission Grammar.

Report cards went home Friday (2/3/12) in your scholar's blue folder. If you would like to schedule a parent teacher conference, please sign up in the classroom.

Warmly,
