

Mission Grammar At Home Weekly Reading Log Grades 3-5

Scholar Name: _____ Dates: _____
Total Time Spent Reading: _____ Family Initials: _____ (2 pts.)

Record the amount of time you read during the week, along with the title, genre, page numbers read, and a two-sentence description of the reading strategy you used while reading that night. Our recommendation is to read 30 minutes per night, but some of you have activities after school so you might read most of your minutes on different nights. Please read 120 minutes total (2 hours) each week. You can break this down so it will best work with your schedule and work load.

Record the date and reading information (10 Points)

Mon. _____ - Time Read: _____ Pages: _____
Tues. _____ - Time Read: _____ Pages: _____
Wed. _____ - Time Read: _____ Pages: _____
Thurs. _____ - Time Read: _____ Pages: _____
DUE: Friday, _____

Directions: Underneath the title and genre of the book, write a summary of the reading. Summary: Identify important events and details in your reading. It should be the main idea and two or three supporting details.

1. Title: _____ Genre: _____

Summary: _____

2. Title: _____ Genre: _____

Summary: _____

3. Title: _____ Genre: _____

Summary: _____

4. Title: _____ Genre: _____

Summary: _____

Fiction:
Realistic Fiction
Historical Fiction
Traditional Literature

Genre Guide:

Non Fiction:
Informational
Biography
Autobiography

New Vocabulary:

List new words you've discovered while reading. Find the definitions and write them next to the word. If you need additional space attach a separate piece of paper.

_____ -
_____ -
_____ -
_____ -
_____ -
_____ -

Visualize (4 Points):

Draw a picture of your favorite scene from the week's reading. OR, draw a picture of a scene that was easy to visualize because the author used great vivid description.

