Greetings Families and Friends!

We had a great field trip to the Franklin Park Zoo! We saw many many animals and the weather was beautiful to enjoy our lunches outside ☺ Thank you to all the parent volunteers, we couldn't have gone without you!

On June 14th, K2 will have its graduation ceremony in the Garden between the two buildings at school. The event will begin at 10:00 a.m. and all family is invited ☺ There will be a reception in the K2 classroom following the graduation, feel free to bring any refreshments you would like. It will be a very special celebration of our kindergarten scholars moving on to 1st grade in the fall.

We started learning about how to tell time this week. We have begun to understand reading time on the hour (i.e. 10:00, 11:00, 12:00). It would be very helpful to continue to work on this at home with your scholar this weekend and over the summer.

Books We Read This Week:

Today is Monday by Eric Carle
David's Drawings by Cathryn Falwell
Rooster's Of to See the World by Eric Carle
A Color of His Own by Leo Leoni

Friendly Reminders ☺
